Important Documents.

His Excellency Governor Perry has given us the privilege of using for publication the following documents:

Tenure of Office of Provisional Governor.

"DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 29th, 1865."

"To His Excellency B. F. Perry, Provisional Governor of the State of South Carolina:

"Sir—I have had the honor to receive, and I have submitted to the President your letter of August 28th, in which you state, 'I desire to be instructed as to my duty after the State Convention of South Carolina shall have formed a State Constitution abolishing slavery and popularizing the organic laws of the State. It is probable that the Convention will provide for the election of members of the Legislature and the election of Governor by the people on the second Monday in October,' and in which you solicit answers to the questions:

When these elections have taken place is it my duty to convene this new Legislature as Provisional Governor, or are my functions at an end when the new State Government is organized? How long shall I continue to act as Provisional Governor? Do my functions continue until the State is admitted back into the Union?

In reply I have the honor to inform you that the President does not think it now necessary to anticipate events. He will expect you to report proceedings and events as they occur in South Carolina, carefully and freely, for the information of this Government. In any case, you will continue to exercise the functions heretofore vested in you by the President until you shall be relieved from that duty by his express orders to that effect.

"Congratulating you upon the favorable aspect of events in your State,

"I have the honor to be,
"Your Excellency's obedient servant,
"WM. H. SEWARD."

Order countermanded in regard to Colored Militia.

"HEADQ'RS MIL'RY DIST. CHARLESTON, }
"CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 4th, 1865. }

"Col. John S. Beecher, Com'dg 3d Sub Dist:

"Colonel—The Brevet Brigadier General Commanding directs that you revoke the paragraph in your Order in which you authorize the organization of colored men as Militia. Since the establishment of peace, Gen. Gillmore has discontinued the organization of a military force of colored men, and disapproved last June a requisition from Gen. Hatch for arms for a company of colored men raised in this city.

"Very respectfully, your obedient serv't.

"J. MILTON THOMPSON,

"Capt. 33d U. S. C. T. and A. D. C."

Letter from State Agent—Extract Concerning Pardons.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9th, 1865.

"To His Excellency B. F. Perry, Governor:

"Upon the subject of Pardons, the President said that if there were any citizens whose pardons were especially important to the industrial interests of the State, he would, unless there was some special objection, take them into immediate consideration if brought to his attention. I therefore applied to the office of the Attorney-General for a list of such applicants as had filed their petitions in his office. No such list was kept; but I will be allowed to make one if I desire from the petitions themselves. I understood from the Assistant Attorney-General that no applications were sent up to the President without special direction, except such as related to the exceptions under the 13th clause. As I found some of our citizens who were fully entitled to the consideration of the Executive, waiting for their pardons, I submitted to him this morning a list. It was necessarily a very short one, as it comprised only those who were here, and those of whose application I was personally cognizant. As soon as I can obtain the list from the Attorney-General's office, I will give it my best attention. I will learn, I hope, to-morrow, what action has been taken on the list submitted. I found at the Attorney-General's office a number of pardons for members of the Convention, including, I am glad to say, several of the Generals. They will be delivered to me to-morrow upon my receipt, and such of them as I cannot mail, for want of direction, I will enclose to your Excellency.

"Very respectfully, &c.
"WM. H. TRESCOTT."
